

RED HOUSE RECORDS

Contact: Angie Carlson • publicity@redhousetrecords.com • (651) 644-4161

Christmas on the Lam and Other Songs From the Season Red House Records' First Ever Holiday Collection

Featuring new recordings by Charlie Parr, Davina & the Vagabonds, Dale Watson, Jorma Kaukonen, Larry Campbell & Teresa Williams and others

Street Date October 14, 2016, available for pre-order at Amazon and iTunes

St. Paul, MN - We at Red House Records, based in the nation's icebox of Minnesota, have a lot of experience with below-zero temperatures and dark, snowy nights. Oddly enough, we've never put out a collection to mark the holidays. Until now, with Christmas on the Lam and Other Songs from the Season, set for release on October 14, 2016. A request for wintry songs brought out the best from Red House veterans and newcomers alike, with new recordings by Jorma Kaukonen, Davina & the Vagabonds, Charlie Parr, Dale Watson, The Pines, Larry Campbell & Teresa Williams and Bill Kirchen nestled against chestnuts by the Wailin' Jennys, Suzzy Roche, John Gorka and Robin & Linda Williams.

Bluesy vamp and jazz pianist Davina and her Vagabonds give Elvis a Dixieland twist on Santa Bring My Baby Back to Me. "Titan of the Telecaster" Bill Kirchen & Austin de Lone find St. Nick hoping to get lucky on the good and greasy Santa Claus Wants Some Lovin'.

A Prairie Home Companion favorite Heather Masse of the Wailin' Jennys gets warm and sexy herself with Mittens, while folk great John Gorka gets out of the cold with the ghost of Buddy Holly in Holed Up in Mason City.

Ethereal indie folk trio The Pines deliver a haunting rendition of Gordon Lightfoot's classic, Song for a Winter's Night, while New York City's Suzzy Roche goes bluegrass with Cold Hard Wind. The

---

Publicity Contact: Angie Carlson • publicity@redhousetrecords.com • (651) 644-4161
<http://www.redhousetrecords.com>

unrivaled king of Texas honky tonk Dale Watson takes us home for the holidays with Christmas to Me and the first couple of Americana, Grammy-winner Larry Campbell & Teresa Williams, give us their own turn on Elvis with their heartbreaking version of Blue Christmas.

We find veteran folk and bluegrass artists Robin & Linda Williams snowed in and loving it on Together All Alone, while raucous blues legend Charlie Parr gives us a picture from life's dark side with Slim Tall's Christmas on the Lam. Appropriately, Christmas on the Lam closes with two spirituals: Rock and Roll Hall-of-Famer Jorma Kaukonen contributes a gentle finger-picking acoustic guitar and vocal rendition of the West Indian carol, The Baby Boy, and The Wailin' Jennys close with the uplifting, banjo-driven Glory Bound.

No clichéd holiday standards here, but rather a carefully curated group of songs that, like the holidays themselves, deal with love, loneliness, lust, spiritual gratitude, long wintry evenings and one of those untranslatable Scandinavian words used to describe the coziness concept that gets us through the long winter. Cheese-free and heartfelt, Christmas on the Lam... is a folksy, offbeat collection of tales about the winter and the season that aims to add a little shot of somethin' somethin' to your nog of choice.

Track listing:

1. Santa Bring My Baby Back (To Me) - Davina & the Vagabonds
2. Santa Claus Wants Some Lovin' - Bill Kirchen & Austin de Lone
3. Mittens - Heather Masse
4. Holed Up Mason City - John Gorka
5. Song for a Winter's Night - The Pines
6. Cold Hard Wind - Suzzy Roche
7. Christmas to Me - Dale Watson & His Lonestars
8. Blue Christmas - Larry Campbell & Teresa Williams
9. Together All Alone - Robin & Linda Williams
10. Slim Tall's Christmas on the Lam - Charlie Parr
11. The Baby Boy - Jorma Kaukonen
12. Glory Bound - The Wailin' Jennys

Available for pre-order now:

Amazon

iTunes

Angie Carlson

Vice President of A&R and Promotions

Red House Records, Inc.

PO Box 4044, St. Paul, MN 55104

Phone: (651) 644-4161 publicity@redhouzerecords.com